■ UM STUDENTS BRING HOLIDAY CHEER TO NURSING HOMES -- Christmas cheer and volunteer spirit will rule the day Thursday, Dec. 5, when University of Montana students and community members deck the halls of Missoula's Hillside Manor nursing home. About 10 volunteers, including eight UM students, will visit Hillside from noon until 5 p.m. to trim trees, put up holiday decorations, sing Christmas carols and visit with residents, says event coordinator Kelly Ward, director of UM's Volunteer Action Services. Volunteers will also pitch in to put name tags on residents' clothing. Hillside Manor Activity Director Johnel Nunes says the best time to observe the festivities should be from 2:30 p.m. on, when decorating will be in full swing. The project is a joint effort by Volunteer Action Services and Volunteer Montana. A different group of volunteers will visit Riverside Health Care Center on Saturday, Dec. 7. For more information call Ward, 243-2586 or 243-5177, or Nunes, 251-5100, extension 116.
